

Archaeological
Walks 2019-20
Free
Booking Essential
Contact: Dan Amor
dan.amor@heneb.co.uk
01248 366970
A series of walks exploring the historic landscape of Gwynedd

N.B. Most of these walks involve steep ascents and rugged terrain

Bryn Celli Ddu

Sunday 16th June 2019 10:00am

A tour of Bryn Celli Ddu Neolithic chambered tomb and the surrounding prehistoric landscape. Delivered in conjunction with the Bryn Celli Ddu Landscape Project.

Distance: 3km, 2 hours

Walk leader: Dr Seren Griffiths, University of Central Lancashire

Pen y Bryn Barracks

Sunday 21st July 2019 9:30am, 1:00pm, 4:30pm

Find out about this year's excavation, clearance and recording work at Pen y Bryn Quarry Barracks, Dyffryn Nantlle. Part of the Festival of Archaeology.

Distance: 4.2 km, 2.5 hours

Walk leader: Dave Hopewell, Gwynedd Archaeological Trust

Din Lligwy

Sunday 1st September 2019 7:30pm

A night visit to one of Anglesey's best known enclosed hut groups. In partnership with Prosiect Nos, so expect some exciting dark skies related activities.

Please note the late start time.

Distance: 2.5km, 2.5 hours

Walk leader: Andrew Davidson, Gwynedd Archaeological Trust

Bangor

Sunday 15th September 2019 10:00am

Part of Open Doors 2019. Visit our offices before embarking on a tour of Bangor. This year we'll focus on the northern half of the city.

Distance: 5km, 3 hours

*Walk leaders: Andrew Davidson, Rob Evans
Gwynedd Archaeological Trust*

North Coast of Anglesey

Sunday 8th March 2020 10:00am

Come and explore the archaeology between Cemaes and Porth Wen, including Llanbadrig Church, Dinas Gynfor Hillfort and Porth Wen Brickworks. Taking in the spectacular coastline along the way.

Distance: 9.6 km, 6 hours

Walk leader: Jane Kenney, Gwynedd Archaeological Trust

Tre'r Ceiri

Sunday 29th March 2020 10:00am

Back by popular demand - another chance to visit the stunningly situated Tre'r Ceiri (Pen Llŷn), one of Britain's best preserved Iron Age hill forts.

Distance: 5.5km, 3 hours

Walk leader: Dave Hopewell, Gwynedd Archaeological Trust

Most of these walks will be delivered through the medium of English

